

Our Community. Our Future.

The design comprises of sections of open semi-circles to create a compass in the middle.

Each piece represents open helpful hands from different cultures.

The Compass represents direction received from mixing culture. The smaller circle represents new people joining the circle and bringing their piece to join new thoughts, practices and relationships.

It all comes together to make the shape of a welcoming hugging person.

